School Commissioner Election

Please join the Accrediting Commission in congratulating Deborah Hepburn, Executive Director of Compliance and Education / Chief Education Officer of Triangle Tech, a system of six (6) ACCSC-accredited institutions located throughout Pennsylvania, on her election by the ACCSC Membership to a four-year term as a School Commissioner.

For over 30 years, Deborah Hepburn has dedicated her career to providing quality training for students in Pennsylvania. Triangle Tech has been accredited by ACCSC since 1970, and since 2018, Deborah has served as Executive Director of Compliance and Education, a role in which she is responsible for monitoring quality assurance and compliance with all corporate policies and procedures, State and Federal Regulations, Accrediting Standards and Associate Degree regulations. Additionally, as the Chief Education Officer, Deborah oversees program revisions and curriculum development at all Triangle Tech campuses. In addition to volunteering as an ACCSC Team Leader since 2007, a role that supports the Commission through the management of the on-site evaluation process, Deborah serves on the Pennsylvania Board of Private Licensed Schools. She holds a Bachelor of Science degree in Business Management from Western Governor's University.

The Accrediting Commission extends its sincere appreciation to the ACCSC membership for their active participation in this year's election.

The Accrediting Commission and staff are excited to begin working with Deborah as she prepares to begin her new 4-year terms set to begin on July 1, 2019.
