Please join the Accrediting Commission in congratulating Dr. Kate Osio, Compliance Officer of Spartan College of Aeronautics and Technology, on her election by the ACCSC Membership to a two-year term as a Nominating Committee Member.

Dr. Kate Osio is the Compliance Officer for Spartan College of Aeronautics and Technology ("Spartan") and supports Spartan campuses in Oklahoma, Colorado, and California. Since 1999, Kate has served in a number of positions within the postsecondary career college sector, including Academic Dean, Campus Executive Director, Group Vice President of Operations, and Chief Operating Officer. Kate has been a member of the ACCSC Progress Committee since 2007 and since 2016 has volunteered as a Team Leader, which is responsible for the management and administration of the on-site evaluation to schools in the ACCSC accreditation process.

The Accrediting Commission extends its sincere appreciation to all of the Nominating Committee candidates and to the accredited members for their active participation in this year's election. Please join ACCSC in congratulating Dr. Kate Osio.

Additionally, pursuant to Section 1.09(b)(i)(2), at the August 2018 meeting, the Accrediting Commission confirmed Dr. Julie Basler, Immediate Past Chair of the Commission, to serve a one (1) year term on the Nominating Committee

Dr. Julie Basler has served as the Vice President of Academic Affairs for Platt College, an ACCSC-accredited institution located in Aurora, Colorado since 2007. Julie has been volunteering with ACCSC since 2008 and has served in a variety of positions including as a member of the Degree Committee, as a Distance Education Specialist on-site evaluator, and as a featured speaker at ACCSC's Professional Development Conferences where she focuses on best practices in self-evaluation and curriculum development. In 2011 Julie was selected by the Commission as ACCSC's Volunteer of the Year, and in 2013, the ACCSC membership elected Julie to serve on the Accrediting Commission.

Please join ACCSC on congratulation Dr. Julie Basler to her appointment on the Nominating Committee.
