Tip: Explore the Resources

- Regs are effective August 14, 2020
  - Learn the new regulations:
    - No way around it – you can't comply with something you don't understand
    - The actual regs are less than 30 Word pages
  - Watch OCR's Webinar: Title IX Regulations Addressing Sexual Harassment (1 hour, 11 mins, 20 secs)
    - <https://www.youtube.com/watch?v=TdfT5R8ibm4&feature=youtu.be>
  - Email OCR OPEN Center with questions at T9questions@ed.gov
  - Read the Department's Summary Documents:
    - U.S. Department of Education Title IX Final Rule Overview
    - Summary of Major Provisions of the Department of Education's Title IX Final Rule and Comparison to the NPRM
    - Summary of Major Provisions of the Department of Education's Title IX Final Rule
    - Office for Civil Rights Blogs
    - Questions and Answers for Postsecondary Institutions Regarding the COVID-19 National Emergency
  - Attend as many webinars you can or find an organization (hint: T9Now) to help you answer questions

Tip: All Hands On Deck

- Engage all the stakeholders; especially your executive team: you need a buy-in for all the resource approvals.
  - Prepare your proposal with consideration for COVID19, current economy, staff availability, student presence, number of campuses, etc.
  - Determine short term staffing plan: hiring vs. outsourcing
- Discuss how this will be managed remotely: keep your team engaged and prepared
- Understand the composition and training needs of your Title IX team
  - Establish your TIX team (internal and external)
    - Designate the TIX Coordinator(s)
    - Identify pool of Investigator(s), Adjudicator(s)

Tip: Policy Updates & Communication

- Begin Interim Policy changes:
  - Incorporate interim disclaimers to notify your community that to the extent possible you will comply with new regulations. Consider phased approach!
  - Policies will need to incorporate key terms, describe when will you respond to sexual harassment, explain Formal Complaint, and commit to basic elements of formal complaint framework.
  - Determine standard of evidence: preponderance OR clear and convincing? Pick one and stick to it.
- Notify your students, staff, applicants, prospects
- Publish on your website:
  - Name or title, business address, email address and phone number of your Title IX Coordinator
  - Training materials used by Title IX Coordinator, investigators, and adjudicator

Tip: Training Strategy

- Develop a “stop-gap” training strategy
  - Fill in the gaps; don’t start from scratch
  - Title IX Coordinator needs to be up-to-speed and trained by Aug. 14, but other roles need to be trained prior to serving in roles
    - If you have few cases probably won’t need to have a fully trained team by Aug. 14
    - Can always outsource if necessary

Tip: Analyze & Socialize Decision Points

---

- Standard of Proof
- To Whom to Report
- Definition of Consent
- Process for Non-Title IX Misconduct
- Informal Resolution
- Participation of Advisors
- Hearing Format & Protocols
- Discretionary Dismissal
- Allowable Bases of Appeal

Q&A

Do the rules apply to distance education or “online” classes or activities? Can you provide examples?

Q&A

Can schools contract with an outside party to investigate Title IX complaints or to act as the decision maker in hearings? It would be helpful to hear any “best practices” around outsourcing – what was outsourced, how it went, how they found the consultants to do that work.

Q&A

The rules say that the materials used to train Title IX personnel must be posted on website. Does this mean the actual training needs to be posted, or could the institution post a summary of the training. For example something like, “The school’s Title IX personnel are certified by <<insert training vendor name>> to appropriately respond to, investigate and adjudicate Title IX violations...”

Q&A

If a respondent is charged with a crime and convicted, can the school defer to the police investigation and forego conducting its own investigation?

Q&A

Can you talk about the role of Advisors? I know Advisors have to conduct cross-examination, but I'm unclear about how they participate in the process otherwise, i.e. during the investigation for example. If a party does not have one, what is the school's obligation to provide one?

Thank You!
